

Programme on Energy Saving In Steam Engineering

On 20th & 21st February 2014

Exclusively for Process Industries using saturated steam

Program Content:-	Who Should Attend?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Steam Engineering Basics● Energy Saving Opportunity In various industries● Heat load calculation● Operation of steam line accessories● Detailed case studies on energy saving equipment	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Plant Head / Works Manager● Utility / Maintenance Manager● Utility / Maintenance Executive● Supervisor

Key Benefit: A certified Energy Conservation Plan

This is a certified energy conservation plan (CECP) designed by Thermax. After the first day of classroom training, every participant shall prepare an energy conservation plan for his/her plant. The participant's plan will be shared for review and certification by Thermax experts for practical implementation.

Program Fee: Rs. 18,000 per delegate plus extra service charges

The fee includes snacks & lunch for both days. Boarding and lodging arrangements to be made by the participants themselves.

Note: Limited number of seats. Please rush to avail early bird discount

To send your nomination, please fill the attached registration form, Click here.

For more details and booking please contact: –

Mukesh Ghodke or Sushama Garud

Phone: (020) 6615 5577/ 91 8087557375

E-mail: mukeshghodke@thermaxindia.com/

sushama.garud@thermaxindia.com